

Living in Rochester NY

You will find Rochester NY in Monroe County. Second only to New York City, it is the second largest economy in the state. It is the center of Monroe County which also includes Livingston, Orleans, Genesee, Ontario and Wayne counties and it is the third largest city in New York. It is also called the Flower City or The Worlds Image Center. Having 36 neighborhoods with each having their own characteristics and unique from each other, it is also known as the city of neighborhoods. If you love the serenity of nature, there is the residential tree lined avenues of Maplewood. Now if you are more of the eclectic type, you will love South Wedge Business district. If gracious homes are what you are looking for, there is Browncroft.

It is the 6th Most Livable Cities among the 379 metropolitan areas according to the Places Rated Almanac. In 2007, it took the number 6 spot for best metropolitan public schools nationwide and the top spot for quality of life given by the Expansion Management Magazine. Rochester NY is considered to be one of the best places to live in because of its available to all wide range of resources. The city has everything one will need, whether for a single person or for a family, from the most beautiful architecture, parks business center and cultural centers.

The city has around 3500 people in different jobs when it comes to city employment. Comprehensive benefits for employees, opportunities for advancement and competitive pay are what the city boasts of. The city is also very supportive of its local large and small businesses. Its Economic Development Department provides assistance to businesses in the city as well as for those who want to relocate to the city.

Rochester NY also offers wide range of entertainment and recreational opportunities. There are always free concerts and other celebrations. The Garth Fagan Dance Troupe which performs around the city for various occasions calls the city its home. For those who love the arts there is the Rochester City Ballet and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. Since the city takes a deep pride in its history, you will find the history of Rochester in its architecture and in its museums. Of course there are other works of art showcased in other museums, such as the unique collections of the George Eastman House and the dolls at the Chili Doll Hospital and Victorian Doll Museum. And for those who love sports, there are the usual indoor and outdoor sports. There are also cycling, mountain climbing and running clubs. Of course you can always enjoy boating on Lake Ontario, the Erie Canal, the Finger Lakes and Genesee River.

About the Author

Find more info about rochester news, stop by RocVille.com.

Source: <http://www.Coolio4.com>